

TENTATIVE OUTLINE OF CEREMONY OF

FEBRUARY 22, 1932

Platform guests assemble at 2:30 in Library and move in procession to the auditorium, preceded by the Gloria Trum-peters. All other guests to be seated in advance. At 3:00 o'clock, the Chancellor, Dr. Elmer Ellsworth Brown, presiding, will greet guests and introduce the Director of the Hall of Fame, Dr. Robert Underwood Johnson who will briefly present the bust of LaFayette, a replica of one by Houdon and read his short poem "The Sword of LaFayette."

MINUTES

Acceptance of the bust by the Chancellor and introduction of Count de Chambrun

8

Chancellor

Acknowledgment by Count de Chambrun, representing the family of LaFayette

3

Introduction of M. Charléty by the Chancellor

3

Address by M. Charléty

2

Introduction of M. Chevrillon by the Chancellor

8

Address by M. Chevrillon

1

Introduction of Colonel Pillon by the Chancellor

6

Address by Colonel Pillon representing French Ambassador

1

Introduction of Mr. Edward Johnson by the Chancellor

3

"The Marseillaise" by Mr. Johnson

1

Announcement by the Chancellor of the flight of the

3

"Los Angeles" as tribute to Washington and

LaFayette and Military Salute

2

Military Salute

3

Chancellor's remarks à propos of American speakers and introduction of Judge Seabury

3

Address by Judge Seabury

8 ?

Introduction by the Chancellor of Miss Repplier

1

Address by Miss Repplier

5 ?

Introduction of Dr. Markham by the Chancellor

1

Reading of poem by Dr. Markham

8 ?

Introduction of Mr. Johnson (tenor) by the Chancellor

1

By Mr. Johnson, "The Star-Spangled Banner"

2

Chancellor's concluding remarks

3

83

TENTATIVE OUTLINE OF CEREMONY OF

FEBRUARY 22, 1932

	MINUTES
Platform guests assemble at 2:30 in Library, upstairs, and move in procession at once to the auditorium, preceded by the Floria Trumpeters playing Mr. Sousa's new Bi-centennial March, all other guests to be seated in advance. At 3:00 o'clock, the Chancellor, Dr. Elmer Ellsworth Brown, presiding, will greet guests briefly and introduce the Director of the Hall of Fame, Dr. Robert Underwood Johnson who will briefly present the bust of LaFayette, a replica of one by Houdon and read his short poem "The Sword of LaFayette."	3
Acceptance of the bust by the Chancellor	4
Acknowledgment by Mr. René de Chambrun, representing the family of La Fayette.	3
Address in French by M. Sebastien Charléty, Rector of the University of Paris, and member of the Institut de France.	2
Address by M. André Chevrillon of the Académie Française	8
Remarks by H.E. M. Paul Claudel, Ambassador of the French Republic to the U.S. COLONEL PALLON	8
The "Marseillaise" sung by Edward Johnson of the Metropolitan Opera Co.	3
Announcement by the Chancellor of the flight of the "Los Angeles" over the Colonnade as tribute to Washington and LaFayette	2
Introduction of the Hon. Samuel Seabury, former Judge of the Court	10
Introduction of Markham and the reading of his poem	8
Address by Miss Agnes Repplier	5
Singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner" by Edward Johnson of Miss Anna Case?	2
Announcement of tea: Platform guests proceed upstairs to Library followed by other guests, preceded by Trumpeters playing Sousa's march or a French composition	2

62

3

65

Salute -

Francois

Conte

1

Florus in pre

MBE

~~_____~~

leafing notes